

Insurance Agency Customer Care Knowledge Base

Q: How do I file an insurance claim?

A: You can file a claim online through our customer portal, mobile app, or by calling our claims department. For more information, visit https://www.ouragency.com/claims.

Q: What is a deductible?

A: A deductible is the amount you must pay out of pocket before your insurance coverage begins paying for the rest of the claim.

Q: How long does claim processing take?

A: Most claims are processed within 5 to 10 business days after all required documentation has been received.

Q: How can I add a driver to my auto insurance policy?

A: Contact customer support or log in to your account. We will need the driver's full name, date of birth, license number, and address.

Q: What documents are required for a new auto insurance policy?

A: We typically require a government-issued ID, vehicle registration, driver's license, address proof, and previous policy information.

Q: What types of insurance do you offer?

A: We offer auto insurance, home insurance, renters insurance, life insurance, health insurance, travel insurance, and more.

Q: How do I update my address?

A: You can update your address through the customer portal or by contacting our support team. Proof of residence is required.

Q: Can I pay my premium online?

A: Yes. Premium payments can be made online using credit cards, debit cards, net banking, UPI, or automatic bank drafts.

Q: What happens if I miss a premium payment?

A: Your policy may enter a grace period. If payment is not received before the grace period ends, coverage may be suspended.

Q: How do I download my policy documents?

A: Log in to the customer portal and navigate to the Policy Documents section to download copies of your insurance policy.

Q: How can I renew my policy?

A: Policies can be renewed online, through the mobile app, or by contacting an insurance advisor before the policy term ends.

Q: What should I do after a car accident?

A: Ensure everyone's safety, contact emergency services if needed, document the scene with photos, exchange information, and report the accident to the police.

Q: Does my auto policy cover rental cars?

A: Coverage depends on your policy terms. Please review your policy documents or contact customer support for more details.

Q: What is covered under homeowners insurance?

A: Homeowners insurance typically covers dwelling damage, personal belongings, liability protection, and additional living expenses.

Q: How do I report a stolen vehicle?

A: First report the theft to local law enforcement, obtain a police report number, and then contact our claims department.

Q: Can I cancel my policy at any time?

A: Most policies can be canceled at any time, subject to policy terms. Refund eligibility depends on the policy and state regulations.

Q: What factors affect my insurance premium?

A: Premiums may be influenced by age, location, claims history, coverage limits, deductibles, credit profile, and more.
